Drama Department Plans High School Play Meet

Twelve high schools in the Dubuque area have been invited to participate in the second annual play festival to be sponsored by the Clarke drama department Nov. 8. Marianne McCarthy, senior drama major, has been appointed general chairman.

The one-day festival will follow the same schedule as last year. A guest judge will criticize and evaluate each play after it has been presented by the individual high school. A round table discussion for directors is planned for the late afternoon, and the students will be entertained at a social hour in the gymnasium and union.

Publications Win Honors In Annual CSPS Survey

"Publications of Distinction" was the rating awarded to both the Courier and the Labarum in the annual survey conducted by the Catholic School Press association.

Only 11 college periodicals were selected from the top "all-Catholic" group for this special rating. Clarke was one of four schools to have both newspaper and magazine listed for the citation.

President Invests Freshmen; Honor Pledges Signed at Tea

"We, the class of 1956, pledge our loyalty . . ." chorused 96 freshmen after they had been invested in their academic robes at the first formal convocation of the year on Oct. 2.

Officiating at the investiture ceremony were Sister Mary Anne Leone, BVM, president of the college, Sister Mary Crescentia, BVM, dean, and Sister Mary Francine, BVM, registrar. They were assisted by the four SLC officers, Dorothy Culhane, Mary Jeanne Rhomberg, Peggy Fox and Patricia Spaight.

"Freshmen of Clarke, you are now our colleagues," were the opening words of the official welcoming address given by Sister Mary Anne Leone following the investiture.

"As college-trained women," said the president, "you are to be apostolic in the manner of educated Christians—informed, resourceful, articulate and, above all, imbued with a great love. The enlarged vision which you set out to acquire will accomplish little unless it is vitalized by love and energized into action."

Speaking of the Mass as the most perfect corporate expression of love, Sister Mary Anne Leone urged the students to take advantage of the opportunity of daily Mass. "The daily Mass co-offered by the Clarke community," Sister remarked, "unites all who participate in a true solidarity with Christ as our Head and with each member of His Mystical Body."

"The charity so generated in our hearts must accomplish positive things," the president continued. "To be constructive and beneficial it must draw out all our gifts in the service of God and our neighbor. Specifically, in the Clarke community, it should motivate our observance of the honor system."

Immediately after investiture the freshmen attended a pledge card tea in the solarium of Margaret Mann hall. Each girl, in the presence of an SLC officer, promised faithfulness to the standards of Clarke's honor system.

Upperclassmen renewed their honor pledge at a special dinner on the previous evening.

Study, Study is the thing to do, according to the vocal-dance chorus which will help link the past with the present in a student skit to be presented tomorrow evening at alumnae reunion. Left to right are Patricia Kilday, Barbara Gusich, Jean Spink, Julie Kramper, Lily Esquivel, Patricia Goff and Patricia Dietzler.

'Robin Hood' Set For New Operetta

Merry men and milkmaids will star in the annual Clarke-Loras operetta, De Kavin's Robin Hood, which is scheduled for Nov. 22-24 in Terence Donaghoe hall. Rehearsals have already begun under the direction of the Rev. Albert Carman, of Loras, assisted by Sister Mary Thomas Aquinas, BVM, of Clarke.

The third annual production of the two college glee clubs, this year's operetta will mark a departure from tradition since the last two were both Gilbert and Sullivan comedies.

The operatic version of the medieval classic is complete with all the characters which made the original story so popular—the adventuresome Marian, the fun-loving Will Scarlet, the jovial Friar Tuck, the wicked Sheriff of Nottingham, the guileless Sir Guy and Robin Hood himself, the man who "stole from the rich to give to the poor."

Soloists for the operetta will be announced later.

Sophomores Will Offer Double Feature Social

Entertainment of two varieties will be offered by the sophomores at a movie-social in Terence Donaghoe hall, Saturday evening, Oct. 18.

General chairman is Kathleen McSweeney. Her assistants are Camille Potenzo, Julie Kramper, Rita Jo Walsh, Marilyn Fifield, Musa Martin, Joy Conlon and Carole Donovan.

Cossacks Open Concert Series With Russian Songs, Dances

The General Platoff Don Cossack Chorus and Dancers will open the 1952-53 Clarke College concert-lecture series Sunday evening at 8:15 with a concert in Terence Donaghoe hall. The series is sponsored by the Student Leadership Council.

Known as the "singing horse-men of the Steppes," the Cossacks were organized in 1927 in Prague, Czechoslovakia, by Nicholas Kosturkoff, their present director. They will present a program of folk melodies, liturgical music and regimental Cossack songs and dances, including the famous sword dance.

Membership of the Platoff Chorus and Dancers has always comprised the best of vocal and dancing talent obtainable among the White Russian refugees who fought communism in Russia. All members are now citizens of the United States. Having already toured the five continents, the Cossacks are on their fourteenth tour of the States. The Sunday evening concert will mark the second appearance of the Cossacks at Clarke. In 1946 they were presented in a similar program.

Three other events in the series have already been announced. On Nov. 3 the Players Incorporated, of Washington, D. C., will return to Dubuque for the fourth consecutive year. Their choice of play this year will be Shakespeare's Love's Labour's Lost.

"Modernism and Religious Art" will be the subject of a lecture by Maurice Lavanoux, present secretary and one of the founders of the Liturgical Arts Society. With a background of 15 years in the offices of Catholic

Clarkites Appear With Leo Carroll In Play at Loras

Leo Carroll, stage and screen star, will appear with Patricia Donahue and Cynthia Craemer, Clarke seniors, in the Loras production of Jenny Kissed Me, to be held Oct. 19-21.

A three act comedy by Jean Kerr, the play is under the direction of the Rev. Karl Schroeder of the Loras speech department.

Carroll played the leading character, Father Moynihan, in the original Broadway production. Currently working in Hollywood, his most recent movie is "Because You're Mine."

Title role in Jenny Kissed Me will be played by Miss Donahue. Miss Craemer is cast as Father Moynihan's housekeeper.

Bob Moddes will be Owen Parkside, a brash college boy, whose father is played by Cliff Lorenz. Enacting the role of a school examiner is Bob Kalaban.

Clarkites comprising the rest of the cast are Beverly Dolphin, Donna Koppi, Mary Dalton, Bernadette Dreyer, Kathy Bahl and Barbara Conlin.

Homecoming on Seminary hill will have a novel touch for Clarke alumnae this year. Formerly held during the summer months, the 1952 reunion was scheduled for this weekend so that alumnae might meet the students and observe the college in session.

Sister Mary Matilde, BVM, alumnae coordinator, and Miss Bonnie Hogan, Chicago, national president of the Clarke alumnae association, announce that registration for the reunion will begin at 7 o'clock this evening. Prior to that, members of the Alumnae Admissions board will have a supper meeting in the college dining hall. The alumnae executive board will meet at 8 o'clock.

During registration, which will take place in the drawing room of Margaret Mann hall, the seniors will be hostesses to the alumnae at a reception in the solarium. Ann Dunbar and Betty Neville are chairmen.

Tomorrow's program will begin with Mass offered by the Rev. Clarence W. Friedman, chaplain, in memory of deceased faculty, alumnae and benefactors.

President Welcomes Alumnae

The reunion will officially open at 10:30 with greetings of welcome extended to the alumnae by Sister Mary Anne Leone, BVM, president of the college; Milton S. Engelbrecht, secretary of the Dubuque Chamber of Commerce, and Dorothy Culhane, president of the Student Leadership Council.

At noon students and alumnae will gather for a campus lunch which is under the chairmanship of Eleanor Rossiter '51 and junior Bertha Fox.

Sister Mary Crescentia, BVM, dean, will address the alumnae on the subject, "Clarke Today," at the business session at 2 o'clock.

Alumnae Discuss Careers

Of special interest to students will be the Career Workshops scheduled for 3:15. At informal meetings alumnae will discuss job opportunities with students in their various fields.

Silver jubilarians will receive corsages at a dinner given in their honor at Bunker Hill Country club tomorrow evening.

Alumnae will have all their questions on the Clarke honor system answered at a panel discussion in which Patricia Donahue, Erma O'Neill, Joan Madden and Donna Becker will participate. The discussion will be followed by a humorous skit, "Linking the Past with the Present," written by Marie Petrone and directed by Marianne McCarthy and Jacquelyn Matkey.

An alumnae-student social is slated for 9 o'clock in the union. Under the chairmanship of Mrs. Wilbur Dalzell, physical education director, surprise packages mailed in by alumnae during the summer will be auctioned off.

Father Friedman will celebrate the

Students Receive Trophies

Presented with bronze trophies at the convocation last Friday in the gymnasium were the following: Rosalyn Muehl, of the physical education department, for her leadership in the basketball team. They were presented by Sister Mary Anne Leone, BVM, president of the college, and the remaining awards were presented by Sister Mary Anne Leone, BVM, president of the college, and the remaining awards were presented by Sister Mary Anne Leone, BVM, president of the college.

Sheila Bitter, Mary McGinnis, Fifield, Benita Kane, Sally McGinnis, Joy Conlon, Kathy McSwain, Madden and Regina Reagen.

Reward Swimmers: Jean Fife, Marjorie Kane, Cronin, Kathy Leonard, Karen Jean Boerschinger, Jane Cronin and Camille Jacques.

Mary Ann Babor received the championship medal for bowling. Leonard for ping pong, Joan Madden for golf, Rosemarie Van Dyke for badminton and Mary Jeanne Weis, Bonnie Haberter and Patricia Spaight for tennis.

Silver medals were awarded to runners-up in these tournaments: McCaville, Pat Spaight, Joan Weis, Bonnie Haberter and Patricia Spaight.

Helen Yuan was presented with runner-up trophy which she won in the city ping pong tournament.

Rosemary Flynn Wins In Bridge Tournament

Top finalist and winner in the round of the recent bridge tournament was Rosemary Flynn. She was partnered by Nancy Dunham. Last double rubber from their opponents, Carol Green and Mary Peterson, the tournament attracted a first round entrants who were all eliminated with each double. Two girls from each double advanced as the rounds were played.

Chairman of the tournament, Sheila Branchaud, assisted by monitor, Bonnie Haberter.

Donna Koppi Manages CLRK Staff Again

Reappointed as manager of the CLRK staff, Donna Koppi, sophomore, will direct campus radio station for the coming school year. Conlin will be the assistant manager. Kathy Bahl will be the publicity director and Mary McGinnis will be the director. Serving as promotion director and news editor will be Mary McGinnis and Jo Ann Flynn.

PRESIDENT CONANT OF HARVARD is once again the subject of considerable discussion, this time by George Kramer, of Loyola university, Los Angeles. In an open letter to President Conant, who had stated that "private schools are a threat to Democracy," Mr. Kramer challenges him to prove his sweeping statements concerning the "dual system of education" and define such terms as unity and democracy. In Mr. Kramer's opinion, President Conant is acting most un-democratically and has little basis for his unfair accusations and absurd views.

CLASSROOM CHEATING, according to an article written for parents in Parents magazine, is commonly practiced by high school students today because they place more value on marks than on character. It is a dangerous form of dishonesty which the author contends is introduced in the home. Parents can help eliminate the desire their children have to cheat by setting up for them a higher system of values.

THE TRADITIONAL MUD-SLINGING so common in our national elections is certainly not lacking in the present campaign. What at first seemed like a hard blow dealt to the Republicans—the Nixon incident—appears now to be having important repercussions very much in their favor. As a result of the Democrats' excitement over the affair, Illinois officials probed into the Stevenson fund but found no startling news. Now that both Stevenson's and Sparkman's income tax returns for the last ten years have been revealed, the public is eagerly awaiting the truth about General Ike's "tax file." With so much publicity given to the political scandals in the country, we can't help thinking that politicians might do well to adopt an honor system.

College Can Be Disappointing!

Many people who come to college are disappointed. We can easily see why.

We go to movies and see the story of the ex-show girl who hits campus one week and the next week stages a musical extravaganza with a Broadway budget. Our favorite TV playhouse presents the stirring saga of the "student" who becomes a hero by barely passing his finals so that he can score the winning touchdown for dear old his finals so that he can score the winning touchdown for dear old (rah-rah) Alma Mater. Via the radio we hear the latest about Ivy Covered college, whose most pressing current problem is to get adequate funds for a new bird sanctuary.

If we escape these bits of intelligence, we can trust the college corner of our favorite store to give us the scoop on college life. We're told that link jewelry is all the rage and that cashmere sweaters and suede jackets are a "must."

It's no wonder that we can hardly wait to get into this lovely world of sorority teas and fraternity parties, football games and weekends at our roommates' homes.

Then school starts. We find that something has gone wrong somewhere. A brass band doesn't meet us at the station and no one's rich-young-man-in-a-convertible offers to carry our bags.

In classes our instructors persist in favoring lectures and quizzes over telling jokes and singing songs. It is obvious that the faculty hasn't been taking in many collegiate movies. Nor have the boys who stepped on our loafers at the first mixer (a thing Gene Kelly would never do to Virginia Mayo).

But how can all this be? We've heard upperclassmen talking about the fun they've had in college, and shouldn't they know what it's all about? What we don't realize is that upperclassman chat usually emphasizes the lighter side of collegiate life, even though research and reflective thinking are really the main elements.

And so we find out that college means giving as well as receiving and that spare time comes in handy for getting extras done. That lab periods can be tedious and term papers are hard work. That cashmere is a luxury.

Of course, many people who come to college are not disappointed. They come simply—but not so simply—to get an education.

Are You Anti-Social?

A society is an association of people with a purpose.

At Clarke you are a member of a college society. One of the purposes of your college is to give you a love of the good, the true and the beautiful. In other words, you should be aiming for culture. Dictionaries define culture as "improvement and development through careful attention and training."

Within your Clarke society are many chances for cultural improvement. Foremost among these is the opportunity to pray together. This means the Mass, of course—the greatest action any society can perform. It also means October devotions which can make each of you a part of a living rosary.

Currently being offered to you are Mr. Leader's evening art lectures, the music department's listening hour and the SLC's film and concert-lecture series.

All of these have Courier support as splendid cultural and social media. We believe that the extent of your support will determine your sociability rating.

Freshmen Show Scientific Bent In Choice of Fields of Study

by Mary Alice McCarville

"Where are the freshmen going double file?" That's a popular question around the campus these days, and the answer most likely to be correct is "To the biology department!"

Of the 96 freshmen at Clarke this year, 19 of them have chosen biology as their educational field. The home economics department has claimed the next largest group, 12, and the English, art and speech departments have proved most attractive to groups numbering 10, 9 and 9 respectively. The balance of the freshmen are distributed among the other departments.

Most distinguished members of this group are Mary Donovan, whose paternal grandmother, Josephine Jess Donovan, attended Clarke many years ago, and Patricia McNamara, whose mother, Jane Birkett McNamara, is an alumna.

Study Home Economics

In the home economics department are Mary Brewer, Freeport, Ill.; Donna Determan, Mason City; Mary Hogan, Jesup; Anne Horton, Calmar; Margery Kramer, Chicago; Madonna McClimon, Delmar; Susan Meister, Cedar Rapids; Patricia Murphy, Jamestown, N. Dak.; Audrey Thiel, Dyer, Ind.; and Joanne Offerman and Nancy Schmitz, Dubuque.

Joanne Offerman's mother, Callista Keane Donnelly, preceded her at Clarke, and Madonna is the fourth McClimon on the campus, following her sisters Anna Mae, Olive and Marie McClimon Garcia. Pat Murphy is the sister of Rosemary Murphy Bennett.

Choose English Field

The English department claims Frances Giroux, Lead, S. Dak.; Jocelyn Halbach, Primghar; Jo Ann Klein, Des Moines; Nancy Kneeland, Postville; Marion Lifka, Berkeley, Ill.; Dorothy McIntee, Waterloo; Marice Moylan, Hammond, Ind.; Mary Elaine Pashade, Chicago; Patsy Santos, Guam and Mary Ellen Chihak, Dubuque.

Jocelyn Halbach is Jeanette's sister and Nancy Kneeland is Kathleen McSweeney's cousin. Dorothy McIntee is the sister-in-law of Gloria Weimer McIntee.

In the art department are Barbara Fiddes, Joliet, Ill.; Mona Garvey, Galena, Ill.; Patricia Goff, Lake City, Kans.; Dorothy Olsen and Susan Powers, Des Moines; Celeste Kirwin, Iowa City, and Nancy Arnold, Kay Martin

Climaxing the series will be a concert by the Longines Symphonette, one of the foremost ensembles in radio, on April 19. Directed by Mishel Pastro, the symphonette has received the critics' "top award" poll for five consecutive seasons.

College Observes Feast of Founder

Celebration of Founder's day departed from the traditional this year when Oct. 4 fell on a Saturday. Most of the annual festivities were postponed until Oct. 7.

High Mass offered in honor of Mother Mary Frances Clarke was the only all-college observance of the feast on Saturday. The Rev. Clarence W. Friedman, college chaplain, officiated.

Seniors hosted the rest of the school on the following Tuesday at Eagle Point park, scene of the annual college picnic. Chairmen of the various committees were Betty Neville, Jerry Adams, Kay Hoffman, Mary Jane Orban, Jeannette Schuster, Mary Jeanne Rhomberg and Dorothy Cunningham. General chairman was Noma Gott.

Letters from the graduates of '52 were read at a general assembly yesterday at 12:25. These letters, recounting the recent activities of the newest grads, serve as a link between freshmen and alumnae.

Faculty Members Attend Conventions, Address Groups

Members of the Clarke College faculty were in demand as speakers at conventions throughout the country during the summer and fall.

Sister Mary Anne Leone, BVM, president of the college, attended a convention of the International Federation of Catholic Alumnae in New York, Aug. 22, where she spoke on "The Apostolate of the Catholic Alumnae."

Traveling to Dyersville and Waterloo, Sept. 18 and 19, Sister Mary St. Rose, BVM, of the education department, addressed sectional meetings of the Institute of the Archdiocese of Dubuque. Her topic was "Social Studies in the Middle Grades." Sister Mary St. Rose also spoke at the Milwaukee Archdiocesan Teachers' Institute Sept. 25 on "Reading Readiness in the Kindergarten."

Chairman of the economics department, Sister Mary St. Maureen, BVM, attended the Catholic Economic association held Sept. 27 at St. Teresa's college, Winona, Minn. She discussed a paper on labor management by the Rev. Edmund Kurth of Loras college.

In attendance at the history teachers' conference at Luther college, Decorah, Sept. 27, were Sister Mary Jeanne Therese, BVM, and Sister Mary Leoda, BVM, both of the history department. The Rev. Daniel Tarrant of the Loras and Clarke faculties spoke on texts and materials available in the field of European history.

Sister Mary Michail, BVM, chairman of the journalism department, participated in the Northwestern Regional convention of the Catholic School Press association at La Crosse, Wis., Oct. 3. Sister talked on feature writing problems in the high school newspaper.

Cecilian Circle Presents Pianist in Recital-Lecture

Arthur Kufel, of the Loras music department, will be the guest speaker at an open meeting of the Cecilian Circle Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock in the assembly hall. Kufel will present a combined lecture and piano program.

Subject of the evening's program will be "American Music, Contemporary in Form and Meaning, and Our European Heritage."

A member of the Loras music faculty since 1947, Professor Kufel has been presented in several concerts at Loras and throughout the Dubuque area. He has broadcast weekly on the Voice of Loras program over station WDBQ, and was soloist with the college band. He is a graduate of the Eastman School of Music, Rochester, N. Y., and the Cleveland Institute of Music, Cleveland.

Daughters of alumnae in the freshman class

Elections Will Be Topic Of Social Science Panel

National elections, paramount topic of the day, will be the subject of the meeting of the Social Science club Wednesday evening, Oct. 15, at 7 o'clock in the activity room.

A panel composed of Jane Calkins, Ann O'Hara, Marie Petrone and Colleen McGinty will discuss the lives and policies of each presidential candidate. Sheila Coogan will serve as chairman.

Frosh Make Debut; Clarkites Approve

To introduce themselves to the upperclassmen and to thank their tuck-pointers, the freshmen staged a musical program in the assembly hall on Sept. 22. Singing in parody of their "trembling knees and frightened faces" the freshmen hoped to convince the upperclassmen that they should be allowed to remain at Clarke.

Student directors of the program were JoAnn Klein and Marice Moylan. Accompanist for all numbers was Geraldine Hanten who also performed a piano solo. Kathy Burke was the announcer.

—as the editor sees it . . .

it happens here

school days, school daze . . .

and with them comes another variation on an old theme (as offered by a group of weary tuckpointers): "You can always tell a freshman" . . . by looking behind her at the upperclassmen carrying her suitcases up to fourth floor.

and even chairmen can be floored . . .

when it comes to "telling a freshman," as tuckpointer chairman Carol Dammann illustrated during orientation week. Conscientious Carol tried to lure an obviously misplaced freshman away from the faculty table in the dining room, and was promptly introduced to Miss Ione Zimmerman, R.N.

amid the hustle and bustle . . .

of freshman arrival Sister Mary Constantia paused outside Geraldine Rogalski's room to look at the little stuffed dog standing on Gerry's bed. "How cute," said Sister, examining him at closer range. "Why, that almost looks real!" And then it moved.

to imagine the expression on Dorothy Culhane's face when one freshman stopped her to ask, "Aren't you the president of the SLC—sodality of Our Lady of Clarke?"

"beware the ides of march" . . .

is a standard warning of impending doom being replaced locally by "beware Nov. 3"—which should be the bluest Monday of the year if the college calendar is right. Loyal followers of said publication will find that it promises them: "Love's Labor's Lost"—EXAMS.

don't be a schmoo . . .

has become a universal idea of the logic class ever since Ann O'Hara's observation on the difference between being a man and a schmoo. Annie, who often speaks with the voice of experience, contended that if she had never heard of a schmoo, "and people told me to go get a schmoo, I wouldn't have the slightest idea how to go about it. But if they told me to get a man. . ."

'twas a tall tale . . .

that Mary Jo Howerter told her friends when they warned her not to wear heels to a recent Loras dance, because it wasn't "a dressy affair." "Oh, but these don't make me dressed up," the diminutive Mary Jo assured them. "They just make me two inches taller!"

sorry, wrong number . . .

was the reply a group of sophomores gave to Loras' Dick Merkel, when he asked if any of them knew a certain freshman. Seems that every time Dick telephones to the freshman wings, this same girl answers and tells him very sweetly, "Hello . . . this is Rose O'Toole."

the wheel of fortune . . .

Biology Forum Presents Blood Research Panel

Recent discoveries in blood research were discussed in the Biology Forum's first meeting Oct. 1. Participants in a panel discussion were Patricia Murray, JoAnn Grewell and Charlene Dolphin.

Peggy Humeston, president of the club, served as chairman of the discussion. She announced that at the next meeting of the Biology Forum, which will be an open meeting, there will be a panel discussion on sex education.

Press Club Discusses 'Idea Of A University'

To celebrate the centennial of Cardinal Newman's Idea of a University, the Press club has chosen Newman as the topic for its first meeting Oct. 22.

Phyllis Sinda, president, will be general chairman. Participants in the panel discussion will be Carol Dammann, Patricia Willings, Patricia Hogan, Patricia Deming and Jo Ann Klein.

CLRK Goes 'On the Air'; Log Lists New Shows

CLRK will resume its regular broadcasting schedule next Sunday at 9:30 a.m. with a disc show conducted by Karen Bender and Marie Petrone.

According to Donna Koppi, student manager of station CLRK, the daily schedule will be extended to include a newscast and a program of dinner music.

The Clarke Radio club opened its year with a special broadcast on Oct. 4 honoring Mary Frances Clarke. A radio play, written by Sister Mary Ignatia, BVM, was presented on "The Woman's World" program aired over Dubuque station WDBQ from the Clarke studio.

Barbara Gusich was the announcer. Technical details were handled by Barbara Conlin, Rita Mootz and Barbara Trapp.

Holy Ghost Mass Officially Begins 110th Clarke Year

Clarke officially began its 110th scholastic year with the Mass of the Holy Ghost celebrated by the Most Rev. Loras T. Lane, president of Loras college, on Sept. 25. Bishop Lane was assisted by the Rev. Clarence W. Friedman.

Classes began Monday, Sept. 22, following a week of freshman orientation. Students from five countries are listed among the 441 students enrolled at Clarke and Mount Carmel. Representatives of 14 states are included on the Clarke campus, with Iowa having the largest percentage of students, followed by Illinois.

New faculty members from Loras include the Rt. Rev. Msgr. S. D. Luby, the Rev. Wilfred Johannes and the Rev. Daniel Tarrant, moral theology; and the Rev. Anthony Lang, logic and speculative philosophy.

Sister Mary Georgianna, BVM, is teaching physics, education and mathematics courses. Sister Mary Howard, BVM, of the economics department, is also a freshman advisor.

Ione Zimmerman, Rochester, Minn., is the new college nurse.

Former Students Become Postulants

Four former Clarkites began training for the religious life within the past month.

At Mount Carmel, the BVM motherhouse, are Nancy Dunham '53 and Therese Fox '52. Olive McClimon '54 has joined her sister Anna Mae '53 at the Maryknoll motherhouse in Ossining, N. Y., while Margaret Sullivan '54 is at the motherhouse of the Adrian Dominicans in Adrian, Mich.

A Chicagoan, Miss Fox majored in home economics while at Clarke. Besides her work as prefect of the sodality in her senior year, she was also active in the home economics club and the WAA. In her junior year she was class secretary.

Elected senior class president last spring, Miss Dunham of St. Charles, Ill., resigned from the office when she entered Mount Carmel. Consistently on the dean's list, she was a major in music. Her extracurricular interests included the CCP, the WAA and the Cecilia Circle.

Miss McClimon, an economics major, is from Delmar. An active sodalist, she was also member of the WAA, and for two years was voted a place on the all-star basketball team.

and Arlene Runde, Dubuque. Mona Garvey is another of those following in her mother's footsteps here. She is the daughter of Clara Spain Garvey.

The three members of the speech department claiming former connections with the college are Margaret Koob, Dubuque, daughter of Margaret Donahue Koob and cousin of Margaret Kretschmer Schmidt; Kathy Burke, Des Moines, cousin of Rosemarie Van Dyke and Jane Mitchell Syburg, and Nancy Ward, Dubuque, step-sister of Jannan Roussel and cousin of Shirley Quinn.

Others in the department are Patricia Dietzler, Chicago; Dolores Dolan, Waterloo; Suzanne Kelly, LaCrosse, Wis.; Patricia Kilday, Chicago; Jeanine Wadoz, Milwaukee, and Carole White, Dubuque.

Take Economics

Favoring economics are Charlotte Aldera, Jefferson; Mary K. Bruning, St. Cloud, Minn.; Lenore Hirst, Galena, Ill.; Sheila Kelsch, Mason City; Kathleen McCleary, Keokuk, and Mary Lee Steimel, Buckingham.

Mary Lee is a cousin of Patricia, Georgia and Evelyn Murphy. Charlotte is the sister of Therese and the cousin of Mary Virginia Aldera Reed. Sociology majors include Mary Alice Bulkley, Dubuque, whose mother, Alice McCormick Bulkley, and aunt, Dr. Mary McCormick, are both Clarke alumnae, and Mary Dougherty of Mason City, the cousin of Ann Lawlor.

Rooms Get Touch of Picasso As Residents 'Rent-a-Print'

by Pat Spaight

Picture-packed bulletin boards and school pennants are in the background in students' rooms this year—a result of the new project launched by the art department to familiarize Clarkites with good traditional and contemporary paintings. Prints ranging from Giotto to Picasso have been matted and framed for rental.

Coordinator of the project is Rosemarie Roth, senior art major.

Although the pictures were usually selected to serve as a springboard for a color scheme or to match an existing one, some of the girls have unique reasons for their preferences.

Likes Abstract Art

Terry Wilde is one of the few who chose a piece of abstract art. Above her desk hangs "U.S.S. Nevada," interpreted by Ralston Crawford. Terry has found that "you have to live with abstract art to like it," and she has become so fond of this print that she hopes to buy it.

Since she enjoys realistic art, Peggy Fox chose two works by Peter Hurd. She feels that his "Valley in Summer" and "Shower in the Prairie" add the color and mood that her room needs. Another Hurd enthusiast is Barbara Conlin who selected his striking panorama "Bonfire."

Cynthia Craemer and Marjorie Costello have found the perfect match for their cafe curtains. Both print and drapes are reproductions of Grant Wood's "Ride of Paul Revere."

Chooses Ballet Sketches

Degas ballet sketches can be seen in the rooms of Elayne Dowd, Geraldine Rogalski and Mary Elaine Pashade.

Millard Sheets' superb painting of horses in his "California" was the immediate favorite of Kathleen McSweeney and Margie Gildner.

Bernadette Dreyer and Mary Ann Huber saw in Modigliani's "Bride and Groom" a provocative conversation piece while adding a Dufy "Harlequin" for their more conservative callers.

Freshmen who have taken advantage of the print rental gave various reasons for their choices, "Sponge Fishing—the Bahamas" by Winslow Homer is providing the restful atmosphere that Nancy Kneeland and Jo Ann Klein appreciate so much after a hard day of class.

Marice Moylan has "Winter Morning" by Emil Ganso. A steep hill in the picture is a pleasant reminder to Marice of the rolling hills of Dubuque.

Perhaps the most touching reason for choosing a painting was given by Audrey Thiel. She likes John Stewart Curry's "Landscape" because it reminds her of home.

Press Club Seeks Fresh Talent In Writing Contest

Interested in treasure? A wealth of prizes awaits the winners of the writing contest being conducted by the Press club.

Contestants may submit entries in three divisions—short story, poetry, essay. Deadline is Oct. 15.

Those placing first in each classification will carry off either a bid to the sophomore soiree, two tickets to the first SLC dance or two tickets to the Loras Homecoming game. To each of the winners the press club also promises publication of prize entries in the Labarum, an interview over CLRK and recognition in the Courier.

Judges for the contest will be Sister Mary Philippa, BVM, chairman of the English department, Sister Mary Adorita, BVM, Sister Mary Ignatia, BVM, and Sister Mary Michail, BVM, publication moderators. Winners will be announced in the next issue of the Courier.

The contest is open to all students with the exception of Labarum staff members.

Making Final Plans for the feast of Christ the traditional manner the College Plan of Feast of Christ will start at 3:30 Sunday noon to the end of Eliza Keene where Benediction will be given by the Rt. Rev. Loras T. Lane, president of the Blessed Sacrament. The feast will continue through the day.

Chanting the Psalms and bearing lighted candles, the student body will move in procession from the chapel at 3:30 Sunday noon to the end of Eliza Keene where Benediction will be given by the Rt. Rev. Loras T. Lane, president of the Blessed Sacrament. The feast will continue through the day.

The procession will then re-enter the chapel where the Rev. R. O. Auer, of St. Mary's church, Dubuque, will deliver a sermon.

The Sodality is handling a number of the feast. Prefect Sullivan has appointed Joanne and Julia Dida as general chorists. Candles for the procession will be prepared by chairman Kitty Wilson, Joan Cronin, Marilyn Field, and others.

Drama Department Selects 'Tovarich' For Arena Play

Tovarich, a Russian comedy, has been selected for the fall production to be presented Nov. 15, 16 and 17 at the Clarke College Players. Sister Mary Xavier, BVM, chairman of the department, will be the director.

Written by Jacques Deval, Tovarich is a play about a French dramatist and his wife who come to Paris in 1905 and find themselves in a rooming house with a Russian family. The play has since been made into a movie by Warner Brothers.

Clarke's production will be presented in arena style in the Clarke gymnasium. To the knowledge of the department, it will mark the first time the play has been done using this method.
